

- Contributing to the prevalence of gender equality, including equal representation of women in United Nations bodies and affiliated organs
- Strengthening links with civil society
- Contributing to efforts to strengthen the United Nations and supporting the ongoing reform efforts
- Achieving greater transparency and efficiency in the Security Council's decision-making process and working methodology
- Promoting cooperation and harmony among Security Council members
- Pursuing the common interests of nations belonging to different regional groups
- Working towards increased cooperation and coordination between the Security Council and the main UN bodies, such as the General Assembly and ECOSOC